Day-Day-enu Day-Day-enu Day-Day-enu (x2)

We still call it slavery when

Children work and are not free

Free them from their slavery then Dayenu

Day-Day-enu... (x12)

Sing if you refuse to take it

Children shouldn't have to make it

Blood for chocolate, who'd of thought it? Dayenu

Doesn't matter what your age is

You deserve your working wages

Fair conditions, no omissions Dayenu

Day-Day-enu... (x12)

CEOs might keep denyin'

But we see right through their lyin'

Free the children, children: free them Dayenu

Don't we say to love your neighbor?

So we must fight for fair labor

Tell your friends that we can end it Dayenu

Day-Day-enu... (x12)

Hersheys, Nestle, Toblerone

Ban them from your house & home

Left & right we'll keep the fight 'til Dayenu

The more that we can buy fair trade
The more our workers will be paid
Buy fair trade, workers paid- Dayenu

Day-Day-enu... (x12)

Gotta look below the surface
What conditions could have birthed this?
Don't ignore it go report it Dayenu

This connects to bigger systems
Race and class and globalism
Not so narrow, (like our Pharaoh) Dayenu

Day-Day-enu... (x12)

We still get to eat our chocolate
Lots 'n lots 'n lotsa chocolate
Chocolate- Fair Trade, Fair Trade Chocolate
Dayenu

Fair Trade Chocolate (x3) Dayenu, DAYENU! →(x2)
